

Character Qualities

Godly Principle & Definition	Scripture References
Obedience: Obeying the first time, every time
Patience: Understanding that there are times I have to wait for something.
Self Control: Practice self government by not raising my voice, hurting others, pushing others aside and speaking kindly Kindness: Being kind to everyone I meet every day as they were appointed by God to cross my path.
Joy: To do all things whether I want to or not with happiness. To be joyful no matter what situation I am in.
Diligence: To do everything that I put my hand and mind to the best of my ability.
Promptness: to make sure I am ready for my tasks, chores or extra activities on time.

Tip for success:

Focus on one area at a time! More than that can be overwhelming.

The purpose here is for you to have studied what God's word has to say about an issue you see what needs to be addressed and have those scriptures on hand to help train your children.
